Suits for Damages.

John Betkowski has commenced suit in the Superior Court against the Pacific Oil and Lead Works to recover $25,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by plaintiff while in the employ of defendants in June of last year. He was injured by the bursting of a percolator, and is now compelled to use crutches. He alleges that at the time of the accident, the defendants were testing a new process for extracting oil and were using cocoanut meal, which is unsafe to use in a percolator.
John Broken, another workman who was injured by the same accident, also brings suit to recover $25,000 damages.
