Business Agents Loomis and Elken reported to electrical workers' union No. 6 last night that at this time there is a marked improvement in the trade and that many contracts for electrical work have been let.

The difference between the two factions of electrical workers was the subject of discussion during the session, and the opinion was expressed that in a short time the "outsiders" will consolidate with the international brotherhood, of which F. J. McNulty is the general organizer. Resolutions of respect to the memory of Joseph Braclaw-
ski were adopted.
