

The Richard S. Dinner
Center for Jewish Studies
at the Graduate Theological Union
www.gtu.edu/cjs

“Making Sense of the Auschwitz Site Today: Realities and Representations”

PROFESSOR JONATHAN WEBBER

Brown Bag Lunch (Light refreshments will be provided)

Thursday, February 24
12 PM-2 PM
Easton Hall, Church Divinity School of the Pacific
2401 Ridge Road, Berkeley

Jonathan Webber, a British social anthropologist, is a professor at the Institute of European Studies at the Jagiellonian University, Kraków (Poland). He taught for twenty years at the University of Oxford, followed by eight years as the UNESCO Chair in Jewish and Interfaith Studies at the University of Birmingham (UK), from which he retired in 2010. He is author of Rediscovering Traces of Memory: The Jewish Heritage of Polish Galicia (Indiana University Press, 2009). Prof. Webber has been awarded the Gold Cross of Poland's Order of Merit for services to Polish-Jewish dialogue.

Free and open to the public

RSVP Requested — cjs@gtu.edu or 510/649-2482 510/649-2482

www.gtu.edu/cjs

The Richard S. Dinner Center for Jewish Studies

Offices: 2465 Le Conte Avenue, Berkeley, CA 94709
Mailing: 2400 Ridge Road, Berkeley, CA 94709

510/649-2482

510/649-2482

cjs@gtu.edu

Support the Center for Jewish Studies

Connect with GTU 