

Postcard

The Polish Society of California to Mrs. John Muir¹

S. F.² 23 November 1901

Notice is hereby given to beloved compatriots that a remembrance of fallen brothers in the Uprising³ will be 1 December this year at 9 o'clock this morning in the chapel of the new Church of St. Boniface on Golden Gate Avenue;⁴ in the afternoon a 2nd observance will be held at the B'nai B'rith⁵ Hall on 121 Eddy Street. It is hoped that the service will be well-attended.

P. S. We ask you to bring along, or invite compatriots whose addresses are unknown to us.

St. Boniface Roman Catholic Church

Towarzystwo
Polaków, Litwinów i Rusinów
w Kalifornii.
Grupa No. 7, Zw. Nar. Polsk.

Society of Poles, Lithuanians and Rousines of California Group No. 7, Polish National Alliance

The Society of Poles, Lithunians and Rousines of California

Acknowledgments

"The Strentzel Letters" (Personal collection, Susan Flynn)

Transcribed by Roman Włodek (Kraków)

Translated from the Polish by Bob Lamming (Clifton, New Jersey)

Eddited by Maureen Mroczek (San Francisco) and

Roman Włodek (Kraków)

Also see "The Korwin Letters": <http://cosmopolitanreview.com/the-korwin-letters/>

¹ Louie Wanda Strentzel

² San Francisco

³ November Uprising of 1830; http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/November_Uprising

⁴ 133 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco (between Jones and Leavenworth)

⁵ A global organization described as the voice of the Jewish community